

INTEGRAL FORMATION LATIN INSTITUTE

Instituto Latino de Formación Integral (ILAFORI)

Institutional Profile

The institutional campus of the CUC is located in Barrio Los Yoses, San José. Basically promoting the development of productive activities of the country in three areas: health, services and production.

The following programs are offered by the ILAFORI (Associate Degree):

- Business Administration
- Accounting
- Human Resources
- Tourism
- Oral Expression Techniques
- Ophthalmology
- IT Systems
- Publicity Design
- Dental Technician
- Dental Clinic Assistant
- Electronics

Dental Technician Program

The associate degree program offered by the ILAFORI has a duration of a year and a half. It has two specialties from which the students must choose one (Restorative and Skeletal).

The academic program contain the following courses:

I FOUR MONTH TERM (common block)

- DTD-101 Introduction to the Dental Techniques
- DTD-102 Basic Physics/Chemistry
- DTD-103 Dental Biomaterials
- DTD-104 Computing Fundamentals
- DTD-105 Anatomy and Physiology Fundamentals.
- DTD-106 Dental Anatomy

II FOUR MONTH TERM (common block)

- DTD-201 Orthodontics I
- DTD-202 Partial Prosthesis I
- DTD-203 Occlusion Fundamentals
- DTD-204 Total Prosthesis I
- III FOUR MONTH TERM (common block)
- DTD-301 Orthodontics II
- DTD-302 Administration Fundamentals
- DTD-303 Total Prosthesis II
- DTD-304 Partial Prosthesis II

Restorative Specialty

IV FOUR MONTH TERM

- DTD-401 Restorative I
- DTD-403 Orthodontics III
- DTD-405 Partial Prosthesis III

V FOUR MONTH TERM

- DTD-503 Restorative II
- DTD-504 Restorative Practices Laboratory

Skeletal Specialty

IV FOUR MONTH TERM

- DTD-403 Orthodontics III
- DTD-404 Skeletal I
- DTD-405 Partial Prosthesis III

V FOUR MONTH TERM

- DTD-501 Skeletal II
- DTD-502 Skeletal Practices Laboratory

Graduates

Subsector Specialty	Graduates
	1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003
Dental Technicians	38	41	37	42	20	49

Source: ILAFORI